Weill Cornell Medicine

Need Help?
Have a Question? Have an Idea?

Your education deans are here for you.

K. LaScalea, MD

STUDENT AFFAIRS
Supporting you as a person and a professional

Wellbeing, housing, personal and professional development, student organizations and government, learning support, and concerns about the learning environment.

E. Abramson, MD

CURRICULAR AFFAIRS
Making your educational experience better

Course and clerkship quality, faculty teaching effectiveness, curriculum content and structure, assessment and feedback, and ideas to enhance teaching and learning.

S. Cilmi, MD

ACADEMIC AFFAIRS
Helping you navigate your academic and career journey

Residency and career advising, navigating the Match, dual master's degrees, elective advising, and extended curriculum planning.

J. Safdieh, MD

SENIOR ASSOCIATE DEAN FOR EDUCATION
An open door for questions, concerns, and ideas

Broader concerns about your education, ideas for new initiatives, suggestions for improvement, or help figuring out which office to contact.

Not sure where to start? Just reach out.

Email medicaleducation@med.cornell.edu if you need any guidance.

We're committed to listening, responding, and connecting you with the right support.